I have always liked going to see drawing fairs, painting contests ... I do it since it is part of my job, but above all I do it for the pleasure of seeing the works of young artists, works that are displayed with his clean, spontaneous and artifice-free vision.

But I also go with the secret hope and illusion of finding that hidden talent, of finding that artist who only needs someone to believe in him, to give him support and to help him start his career.

There is very seldom this find, however, when you find it, it compensates you for all the time you dedicate to it, and as a gallery owner I believe that this is one of the functions of art galleries, and "EL CLAUSTRE" has always helped the incorporation of new young artists to the artistic panorama.

I have made this explanation, since that is exactly what happened with Albert Giménez.

From the first time I saw his work until we got in touch, almost 2 years passed. During this time, secretly, I was following his trajectory and each work I saw, he was able to confirm that the first work that had caught my attention was not a sporadic event but rather painting by painting what I had already intuited was confirmed, that Albert is an artist who awaits a great performances in the world of art, and who will have our support to do so.

I am convinced that over the years we will see his exhibitions, but now we invite you to visit this exhibition, we invite you to enjoy the works of
